3 of 3 review helpful Classic biography of Handel By ernest drown Lang clearly knew all there was to know about Handel and his times when he wrote the book The style is sweeping and is enjoyable for the average reader yet detailed enough to satisfy a specialist AND the book is valuable not just because the information is correct but because Lang uses his great knowledge of other composers and their music to make fine I was so impressed by what Dr Lang

has done in his new and very fresh approach to Handel his life and works that I can find only one word to express my feeling about it Monumental mdash Eugene Ormandy Universally known and admired for his great oratorio Messiah George Frideric Handel 1695 ndash 1759 ranks among the greatest composers of all time Over a career of more than 50 years most of it spent in England the German born master c
