1 of 1 review helpful Good read for Bowie fans By T Stone Very interesting reading of Bowie s so called creative period As a fan I was able to see how he works to create his music and what his strength and weakness as human are It was a bit hard to get used to the author s style of writing but I got into it once I started reading Good book if you are a fan of David Bowie 0 of 0 review helpful Heroes is the fascinating story of David Bowie rsquo s years in Berlin where he worked in the late 1970s on his lsquo Berlin Triptych rsquo the albums Low Heroes and Lodger which are among the most critically acclaimed and innovative albums of the late twentieth century Devastated by drug addiction and tortured by delusions persecution mania and visions of the Nazis Berlin the capital of Bowie rsquo s childhood dreams was where he slowly repaired his body a About the Author Tobias R uuml ther is a journalist for the Frankfurter Allgemeine Zeitung in Germany Anthony Matthews is an associate lecturer at the Open University
